

4 Foreign Language Services at Medical Institutions

Efforts are being made in Hiroshima Prefecture to make local hospitals more foreigner friendly, so that non-Japanese speaking patients can receive care with peace of mind. Such efforts include the installation of guidance signs in foreign languages, and enhancement of the system for accepting foreign emergency patients.

Contact	Municipal government office Office of Health, Welfare and Environment / Public Health Center Health, healthcare and welfare-related consultation agencies Holiday & emergency clinics Emergency medical information service
---------	--

◆◆Provision of information on medical institutions

On the Emergency Medical Information Services NET HIROSHIMA, you can search for information on medical institutions and pharmacies. Information is available in English.

In addition, you can search for medical institutions which offer services in a specific language (12 foreign languages included).

Emergency Medical Information Services NET HIROSHIMA

<http://www.qq.pref.hiroshima.jp/>

* Below is a screenshot of the website (some contents are available in English)

* Below is a screenshot of the medical institution search page (Where you can filter your search to institutions which offer services in your language of choice)

